Daniel's Painting General Pricing Guide

Paint Kitchen Cabinets- We will sand, degrease, prime, and paint your cabinets and put on the same or whichever new hardware you prefer. -$3,500 starting price.

Interior painting- Price depends on size of the home and how many coats of coverage and also what you want painted—walls, ceilings, trim, doors, and closets? $3,000-15,000 or more, depending on the size of the house and how many rooms you want painted.

Exterior pressure washing- $300 and up, depending on the size of the job.

Exterior painting- Depends on the scope of work. Do you want just the trim and around windows? We also paint brick, wood siding, vinyl siding, concrete and masonry, decks, stucco, and metal. It also depends on the preparation that is required. We can do light construction to repair any damages that may exist due to water damage and normal wear and tear. $3,000-20,000 or more, it just depends on the scope of work.

Kitchen tile backsplash- yes, we can do tile backsplashes as well. Prices start at $2,500.

Kitchen remodel- We can remodel everything in your kitchen. We will subcontract out the plumbing and electrical, but we are experts at cabinets, formica countertops, painting cabinets, and installing vinyl plank flooring. Let us complete a kitchen remodel for you for cheaper than the big companies. Prices start at $15,000-25,000.

Deck staining or painting- $1,500-2,500, depending on size. $500 extra if we need to pressure wash first. Price also varies based on product. Deck stain is more expensive.

Garage floor epoxy- $1,500-2,000. Apply a durable, two-component epoxy that has chemical reaction bonding capabilities for a stronger and more durable bond.
